Students are also expected to exhibit behavior conducive to learning and follow all the policies and procedures that are stated in your student handbook.

LATE WORK POLICY: The teacher reserves the right to determine which assignments may be submitted late. An alternative assignment may be given in lieu of a late grade.

ACADEMIC INTEGRITY

Instances of cheating should will not impact students’ academic grades. Violations of policy JFA Academic Integrity will be handled as violations of the student code of conduct and addressed via the progressive discipline guidelines in the Student Handbook. Student mastery of the standards covered by the assignment on which cheating was detected will be reassessed with supervision.

MAKE-UP WORK:

1. If a student is absent one day, one day will be given to make up the work missed. Two days, two days will be given, etc.
2. If a student is present when an assignment is given, the student is expected to have the assignment when he or she returns unless arrangements have been made with the teacher.
3. Work given for prearranged absences is due on the day the student returns.
4. Late work is a behavior issue where discipline consequences may be imposed.
5. Late work will only be accepted up to the date of the current unit test.

PROMOTION POLICY

Grades 6-8: Students must perform at seventy percent mastery of content standards in English/language arts, mathematics, science and social studies based on the average of the first and second semester grades for any yearlong courses.

Additionally, students in grade eight must demonstrate developing, proficient, or distinguished ratings in reading and mathematics on the initial or retest administration of the Georgia Milestones assessment as required by the state law and state board law.

** All students receiving services through the Special Education Department and/or Section 504, will receive accommodations and modifications as listed in the student’s individualized education plan.
